

SOCIETY

In order to prevent impositions and embarrassments, the Tribune requests that persons leaving social notes, and especially marriage notices or engagements, for publication, leave with them names through which the source of the same may be traced if the matter is called in question.

CALENDAR

The board of governors of the Ladies Literary club will meet at 10 o'clock this morning at the club house.

Miss Allie Fletcher will entertain the Uddine club at a Japanese supper at her home this evening.

The College club will meet this evening with Miss Grace Bailey and Miss Florence Jennings, at the home of the latter, 49 North Second West street.

The art section of the Ladies Literary club will meet at 10:15 this morning at the club house. Mrs. G. E. Wilson will read a paper on "Modern Architecture in Berlin."

Mrs. John Reed will entertain the Plate club at 1 o'clock today at the College Inn, followed by bridge, at her apartment in the Narver.

Mrs. J. F. Grant, Jr., will entertain at cards this afternoon for her sister, Mrs. D. C. Eccles of Ogden.

Mrs. W. P. Bear will entertain at 5:00 this afternoon for Mrs. L. L. Downing.

The girls of the Gamma Phi of the University of Utah will have a cake sale at Keith O'Brien's Saturday, for the benefit of the house fund.

Miss Zella Gallacher will entertain Tuesday evening, April 6, in honor of Miss Marion Lyman, and Saturday afternoon, April 10, Miss Lyman will be guest of honor at a party to be given by Miss Nordvall.

Mrs. E. G. Gowans entertained eighteen at a handkerchief shower Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Marion Lyman, who will be married April 16 to C. C. Smith. The guests spent the afternoon, writing receipts for a book, which was enclosed in a heart-shaped hand-painted cover and presented to the bride. The room was effectively decorated for the occasion in pink and white carnations. Those to meet the guest of honor were Mrs. F. M. Lyman, Sr.; Mrs. F. M. Lyman, Jr.; Mrs. Alice K. Smith, Mrs. Lucy Smith, Mrs. George P. Smith, Mrs. J. Lyman, Mrs. T. W. Duvon, Mrs. George S. Gibbons, Mrs. Willard Lyman, Mrs. E. Anderson, Mrs. John Z. Brown, Miss Iva McBride, Miss Grace Bowen, Mrs. Hyman Coombs and Mrs. Charles Gowans.

Mrs. Charles G. Plummer was hostess at the regular monthly birthday party of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday, given in the lunch rooms of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Plummer, with the eight young ladies, whose birthdays come in May, were seated at a round table, prettily decorated in red carnations, with a crystal vase of them in the center of the table and a carnation at each place, with a pretty Easter greeting place card. Beside the hostess, covers were laid for Miss Alice Herman, Miss Caley, Miss Mary LaSourd, Miss May Hollinder, Miss Leona Morris, Miss Barrie, Miss Maria Johnson, Miss Pearl Holland and Miss Grace Harbough. Mrs. E. B. Critchlow was also among the guests.

Lovers of good reading and song have a treat in store in the course of readings and song recitals to be given by Miss Mary Phelps of Pasadena, Cal., assisted by Mrs. F. C. Browning of this city, at Unity hall, April 1, 5 and 8, at 8:15 p. m. Miss Phelps has given her professional services very generously since she has been a guest and proven that she possesses rare power in the interpretation of literature. Tonight Miss Phelps will give a program from the popular Scotch humorist, Barrie. Miss Phelps has become so familiar with the dialect that even a native of Scotland might think her to be the real thing. Mrs. Browning, as many here know, sings Scotch songs charmingly.

Miss Nellie Holley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Holley, and Joseph P. Bailey were quickly married Wednesday. A reception followed in the evening at the home of the bride, which was prettily decorated in pink and white roses and carnations, with palms and ferns. Miss Holley was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Holley, and Joe Bailey acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will make their home in this city, where they will be after April 15.

Mrs. W. B. Booth entertained twelve at a prettily appointed 5 o'clock luncheon, Wednesday, followed by a box party at the Colonial Wednesday evening. A basket of pink and white carnations with ferns formed the centerpiece for the table, around which were seated Mrs. H. W. Sherwood, Mrs. E. M. West, Mrs. J. B. Hampton, Mrs. S. J. Leib, Mrs. Pauline, Mrs. Harlan, Mrs. H. E. Booth, Mrs. E. Leinhardt, Mrs. N. Reid, Mrs. Lulu Leinhardt and Miss Nellie Hann.

Mrs. Charlotte E. Gierist, who has spent several weeks as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walker at their farm, is now spending a few days with Mrs. J. R. Walker and will leave Tuesday for her home in Jacksonville, Ill.

Miss Helene Critzer, with her sister, Miss Dorothy, will leave Friday evening for Ontario, Cal., where they will spend the Easter vacation week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Leipsigen announce the engagement of their daughter, Fannie, to Stadi Feld of San Francisco, Cal. The wedding will take place early in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt B. Lowe and Miss Lucy Nisbett arrived in San Francisco, Cal., Tuesday evening from Honolulu, and will be home this evening.

The Utopian club will meet Saturday evening with Miss Eugenia Hunt

Overfatness Condemned.

Fat, or even fattish, women readers, who want to be in the mode this year must understand that the demand is for lines, not curves, and govern themselves accordingly.

That means OFF with the fat. It has become a duty. Many are trying exercise or dieting; but it is certain they will find these methods too slow and unreliable. The cheapest and safest way to get in form for the dieting mode is by means of Marmola Prescription Tablets. Any druggist (or the Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich.) will give you a large sized case of these elegant little fat reducers, containing a good, generous supply, for 75 cents, and even this quantity should be enough to make a decided impression on your excess fat. Many have lost as much as a pound a day.

These Marmola Prescription Tablets may be used with impunity and like-wise perfect confidence, for, being made strictly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription, they are, of course, quite harmless. They are rather beneficial than otherwise; in fact, never disturbing the stomach or causing a wrinkling of the flesh.
